About Best Workplaces for Commuters

Best Workplaces for Commuters (BWC) is a membership program that recognizes organizations that promote sustainable transportation options across North America. Organizations that meet the program's Standard of Excellence are acknowledged for offering exceptional transportation benefits.

To receive this prestigious designation, employers work with pointA to implement sustainable commuting programs and submit an application demonstrating they meet the BWC National Standard of Excellence.

How to Get Certified

As the official Canadian partner for the BWC designation, the pointA team is here to guide you every step of the way making the journey smooth, simple, and impactful. Start the easy to follow certification process today.

Step 1
Review Eligibility
Requirements

Determine how many of the BWC requirements your workplace currently meets.

Step 2
Get Your Designation

Work with the pointA team to implement commuting programs that meet your employees' needs and fulfill the requirements of the designation. Apply for the designation between June and November each year.

Step 3
Get Recognized

Every January, the list of BWC workplaces, sites, residential sites, universities and colleges is released on the BWC website and your workplace will be recognized across North America.

Don't just take our word for it!

“The City of Toronto is proud to be recognized as the first municipality and workplace in Canada to achieve the designation of Best Workplace for Commuters. Our support of sustainable commuting helps our employees experience a better, less stressful commute and supports our TransformTO Net Zero Strategy by reducing greenhouse gas emissions and congestion from a major source: transportation.

— Mayor Olivia Chow, City of Toronto
